Directions on how to get to SoundPost, by Car.
From London:
Take the A3, South, direction Guildford/Portsmouth

(From the Continent: take M20 direction London, then onto M25, direction West/Heathrow, off at Jnc 10, A 3 South)

Cross over M 25, (jnc 10)
(Pass the first exit, Wisley/Ripley)
Take the next exit, about 4-5 miles further on, marked Merrow/Burpham
Head straight into Guildford Town Centre, passing straight ahead around 4 mini-roundabouts, then at large roundabout, continue straight over, still towards Guildford Town Centre.
At First Traffic light, turn left (ignoring previous pedestrian traffic light) into Waterden Road.
At top of Waterden Road, cross straight over lights, into Harvey Road, which bears to the right, follow this.
Alexandra Place is the first turning on the right, free parking (2 hours) in the bay outside. The Old Glassworks is on the right.

By Train
Train from Waterloo to Guildford, express service runs about every 30 minutes, journey time around 35 minutes. (Hint- Take the fast service to Portsmouth via Surbiton, Woking, Worplesdon-- the other stopping service - Wimbledon, Oxshott, Claygate, Cobham etc takes much longer).
From Guildford station follow signs in to 'Town Centre', cross the river, into town centre, clearly signed from station, and walk up the cobbled High Street. Continue to top of the High Street, where it appears to end because the cobbled section stops, but carry on up, the road continues. (The wider newer road is still the High Street.)
At the top of the High Street, the road forks, take the right hand fork, Epsom Road, and turn first right, up Jenner Road, (a steep hill). At top, turn left, into Harvey Road, and then first right into Addison Road. Walk up this road, past Cooper Road, and take the second on the left, Alexandra Place. Soundpost will be on your left. Should take about 15-18 minutes from the station. (The walk back is easier!!!)

There is a train service from Gatwick Airport to Guildford, and a coach service from Heathrow Airport to Woking Station. Woking is two stops away from Guildford by train.
